909 Sharon Street, Denham Springs, LA 70726

Postmarked NO LATER THAN FRIDAY, April 13, 2018.

The LPRW Executive Committee will make the decision on the recipient(s). The decision will be based on academics, career chosen, community service and volunteerism, political awareness, and overall responses on this application. Public, private, parochial and home school students are eligible. Finalists will be asked to interview with the LPRW Executive Committee before a scholarship is awarded, and will be contacted before a public announcement is made. This scholarship can be used toward college tuition or books for students enrolled in an accredited two or four year college or university. A new recipient will be chosen annually. Please submit with copy of high school transcript, proof of voter registration (if registered), and separate sheets of paper necessary to answer questions completely and appropriately.
